

Packlist Charter-Holiday

Please do not use bulky luggage because there is not enough space on yachts for suitcases – soft travelling bags are suitable

Documents	Finance
Passport	Money
Flight tickets / Electronic tickets	Credit Card
Sailing licence (Bareboat Charter)	Traveller Cheques (in some countries)
VHF licence (for some countries)	PIN number / sec. code for credit card Charter contract	purse for crew expenses
Voucher / Boarding pass for charter – if available	cash in local currency Contact details of the charter base own logbook crew list (several copies) checklists for check-in Literature	Entertainment travel guide	CD's, MP3 Player nautical travel guide	game of cards dictionary	world receiver manual with nautical basic knowledge	books maps and charts
Electronic devices	Health
Mobile phone	medicine mobile GPS	sun protection laptop / netbook	glasses charger	sunglasses
adapter / world plus	vaccination certificate (travelling to exotic destinations) batteries	mosquito spray camera / underwater camera Clothes
anorak	sailing shoes
oilskins / sailing clothes	sandals / flip flops sweater / pullover	bathing shoes shirts / T-shirts / tops	shorts / jeans cap / hat	underwear swimsuit
Other
sailing gloves	snorkelling mask (standard equipment on many yachts in the Carribbean or Pacific but you might want to bring your own) dish cloth	washing things / cosmetics bag / backpack for excursions	towels matches	torch

dividers, triangular protractor, pencil	some small lines / ropes swiss knife / leatherman (not in hand luggage!)	trimming strings / wind indicators for the foresail genoa small binoculars

A lot of items are only important for the captain – of course charts and handbooks are on board of you yacht as well as everything you need for navigation. But many skippers would like to taker their own equipment.

We wish you a very nice sailing trip!